

California Expansion Coordinator
Full - time Employment
Carson Scholars Fund, Inc.
Job Description

The Carson Scholars Fund, Inc. is a national nonprofit organization founded in 1994 by retired world-renowned pediatric neurosurgeon Dr. Benjamin Carson and his wife, Candy, to elevate academic achievement and increase reading in our schools. The Carson Scholars Fund supports two main initiatives: The Carson Scholars Program and the Ben Carson Reading Project. Our scholarship program recognizes and rewards students who have embraced high levels of academic excellence and community service with $1,000 college scholarships. The Reading Project provides funding to schools to build and maintain Reading Rooms – warm, inviting rooms where children can discover the joy of independent leisure reading. Carson Scholar alumni are encouraged to apply.

Role Overview

The Carson Scholars Fund is looking for a dynamic individual to join our growing team. The California Expansion Coordinator will play a vital role in the expansion of both the Carson Scholars Program and The Reading Project in California and Southern California specifically. We are looking for an individual with local educational knowledge and contacts to grow the programs in California. This position will work closely with the Scholarship Director and Director of Reading Rooms located in Maryland. The ideal candidate will have experience in program coordination/support and be knowledgeable in educational and specifically literacy trends. Travel to area schools for program presentation and execution is required.
